

Interior Savings offers Emergency Relief Loans of up to $10,000

Kelowna, BC | August 24, 2023 – Interior Savings has launched a Wildfire Emergency Relief Loan for impacted members to help ease the financial burdens that many are facing and allow members to focus on other pressing concerns.

Understanding the immediate need for insurance deductibles, temporary housing, childcare or other essential necessities, Interior Savings is offering a low-interest, 12-month loan, that includes zero interest for the first 90-days.

“In times of adversity, we stand by our members, and the Emergency Relief Loan is one more way that we can offer our support,” said Brian Harris, Interior Savings’ CEO. “Rather than relying on credit cards or other costly financial sources, our aim is to provide much-needed relief with this low-cost, easy access option.”

The Emergency Relief Loan is available for all members impacted by the wildfires no matter where they may reside in BC through to September 18, 2023, and is subject to the standard qualification and loan terms.
